

MMP INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Dividend Policy

Under the Companies Act, the Company can pay dividends upon recommendation by the Board of Directors and approval by the shareholders at the general meeting of our Company. The Articles of Association of our Company give our shareholders, the right to decrease, and not to increase, the amount of dividend recommended by the Board of Directors. The Articles of Association of our Company also gives the discretion to our Board of Directors to declare and pay interim dividends. No dividend shall be payable for any financial year except out of profits of our Company for that year or that of any previous financial year or years, which shall be arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013.

Our Company does not have any formal dividend policy for declaration of dividend in respect of the Equity Shares. The declaration and payment of dividends, if any, will be recommended by our Board of Directors and approved by our shareholders at their discretion, subject to the provision of the Articles of Association and the Companies Act. The dividends, if any, will depend on a number of factors, including but not limited to the earnings, capital requirements and overall financial position of our Company. In addition, our ability to pay dividends may be impacted by a number of other factors, including, restrictive covenants under the loan or financing documents we may enter into from time to time. Our Company has no formal dividend policy. Our Board may also, from time to time, pay interim dividends. Our Company has not declared any dividends since its incorporation.

Our Company has not declared any dividend on the Equity Shares since its incorporation. Our Company's corporate actions pertaining to non-payment of any dividends in the past are not to be taken as being indicative of the payment of dividends by our Company in the future.
